WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY, Petersburg at Richmond, Norfolk at Danville, Lynchburg at Roznoke,

Nothing but the kindliness of Dame Chance in pushing all of the breaks toward Richmond kept the score from running well into two figures, and Barker, notwithstandling his defeat, should be thanking that lady for lessening the ingloriousness of his so-Journ on the mound.

Sullivan has entered a formal protest of the game because of a balk which lenderson falled to allow it id dook like a balk, as the youngster made a deliberate pass at first base without throwing the ball, but it is doubtful if the protest will be allowed by President Williams, who has shown that he is inclined to uphold the umpires rethe protest will be allowed by President Williams, who has shown that he is inclined to uphold the umpires referred as a clean-set for the Bardess of protests.

Gooders Had Ensy Time.

Returning to the ball game, it was a clean-cut victory for the Gooders Nobody is to blame, with the exception of Barker. The team behind him played consistent baseball, and at times performed in brilliant fashion. But there is absolutely no chance when every opposing batsman—or nearly every one—is hitting the ball to safe territory. On the other hand, burring a few passes in the early stages, was never worried. Young Made starred with three doubles out of five times up. Keliher got a triple, a double and two singles in four times.

secured was far too small to be dangerous.

The reversal of form was just as noticeable as it has been in the past. Opportunities galore were presented for runmaking, but with men on bases the in-and-out zwatsmen were loafing on the job, or chose hitless bats.

The first score for the locals came in the third, after two men were down. Baker and Wallace were easy outs, but McCahe worked Bruck for a pass, stole second, went to third when Ligan was safe on Tabor's juggling act, scoring on Martin's clean bingle to the middle weeds. The second counter followed Cowan's triple, which bounded over pliveer's head. He scored on Sullivan's eacrince fly.

The Goobers counted in the first on Sheridan's hit and Mace's double. The second was a blank, though Kellher got a hit. Spencer scored in the third on his hit and Mace's second double. Nothing doing in the fourth, but Bruckmiller and Spencer both scored in the fith, each getting a single, and completing the circuit on Mace's third cloud for two sacks. Hits by Keither and Di vers scored one in the sixth.

by going out from Barker to Cowan. Tabor hit to centre and Keiling doubled, sending him to third, Divers singled, Bruckmiller did likewise, and S. Martin finished the bombardment by cooling to centre. The count-up showed five blirs and four runs.

A perfectly fair criticism would be that the game as a wnole was some improvement over the day before, but by no means up to standard. The error column was not worked to as great an extent as in Thursday's game, but this can be attributed to the fact that the like were cleaner. The score:
